

Sustainable Seas Task Force Membership

The Sustainable Seas Task Force membership consists of the major stakeholders for Scotland's marine environment. Membership is drawn from a broad range of interests including industry, voluntary and recreational sectors, academic institutions, and the public sector. The following is the list of members and the organisations they represent.

Richard Lochhead (Chair)	Cabinet Secretary
Mick Borwell	Oil and Gas UK
Bertie Armstrong	Scottish Fishermen's Federation
Lloyd Austin	SE LINK, RSPB
Dan Barlow	SE LINK, WWF Scotland
Isabel Glasgow	Firth of Clyde Forum and Clyde SSMEI project
Robin Cook	Fisheries Research Services
Campbell Gemmell	SEPA
George Hamilton	CoSLA
Bill McFadyen	Maritime and Coastguard Agency
Michael Scott OBE	Marine Biodiversity Working Group of the Scottish Biodiversity Forum
Ian Jardine	SNH
Graham U'ren	RTPI Scotland
Stephen Bastiman	Scottish Sea Angling Conservation Network
Captain Jim Simpson	Scottish Coastal Forum
Professor Bill Ritchie	Aberdeen Institute for Coastal Science and Management
Sid Patten	Scottish Salmon Producers' Association
Doug McLeod	Association of Scottish Shellfish Growers
Professor Ian Boyd	Marine Science Scotland
David Cameron	Scottish Renewables
Gordon Barclay	Historic Scotland
Paul Du Vivier	Scottish Fisheries Protection Agency
Derek McGlashan	UK Major Ports Group
Mike Balmforth	Scottish Boating Alliance
Captain Nigel Mills	British Ports Association
Edmund Brookes	UK Chamber of Shipping
Ian Gatt	Scottish Fishermen's Federation
David Wilson	Scottish Government