

PUBLIC PROCUREMENT LAW TRAINING - WEBINAR

6 November 2009: 10.00am - 11.00am

DLA Piper will deliver, on behalf of Scottish Procurement Directorate, a web based training session on public procurement law which shall focus on best practice and real lessons learned.

THE SEMINARS WILL COVER:

The training session will be structured around the analysis of a fictional procurement case study and two speakers from DLA Piper will cover the following topics:

- Planning a procurement (scope of the procurement, market interest and internal team resource);
- Drafting the formal notices, tender documentation and contract (including consideration of social and environmental objectives);
- Planning the evaluation strategy (selection criteria, evaluation criteria and evaluation methodologies);
- Executing the procurement (do's & don'ts); and
- Dealing with public procurement challenge (including the new remedies directive).

Throughout the fictional case study, the speakers will introduce typical issues which often arise in public procurement and propose solutions to deal with these issues.
