has been swept for the presence of computer viruses.

Dear Sirs, I write to oppose the proposals for the above as they are not in the best interests of children. Marriage is a more stable relationship than other forms of living together. Children do best where they have two parents of different sexes. Your own statistics give weight to these arguments. I would urge you to give up pursuing this line, which is unnecessary given current legislation. Yours sincerely, Rev G. Stewart Birse, Minister of Newton on Ayr Parish Church, Ayr
